Vietnam,
1968.

Vietnam's natural splendor was plagued by war.

The country seemed to be in the throes
of death.

Fear and paranoia pulled apart the threads of human morality.

During the deadliest heights of the Cold War, death became a daily inevitability.

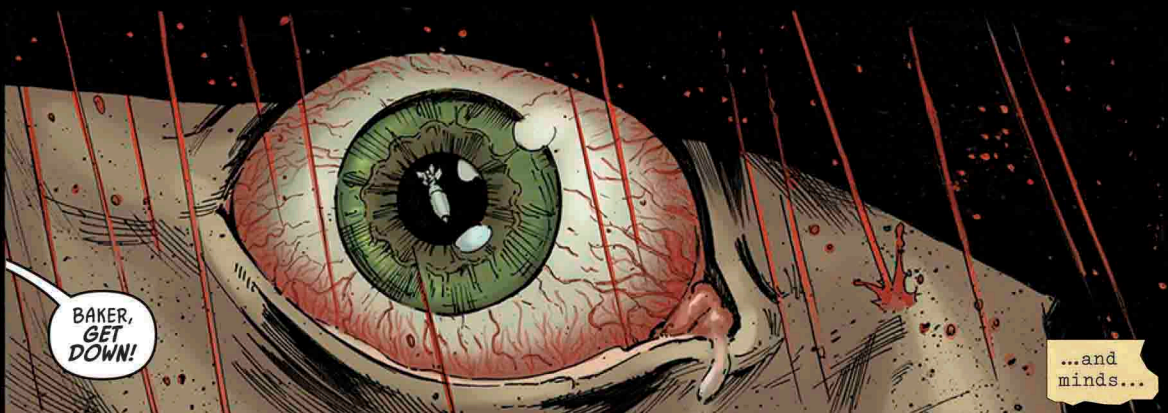

Vietnam's once-peaceful jungles were transformed into hellish labyrinths...

...where soldiers lost their lives...

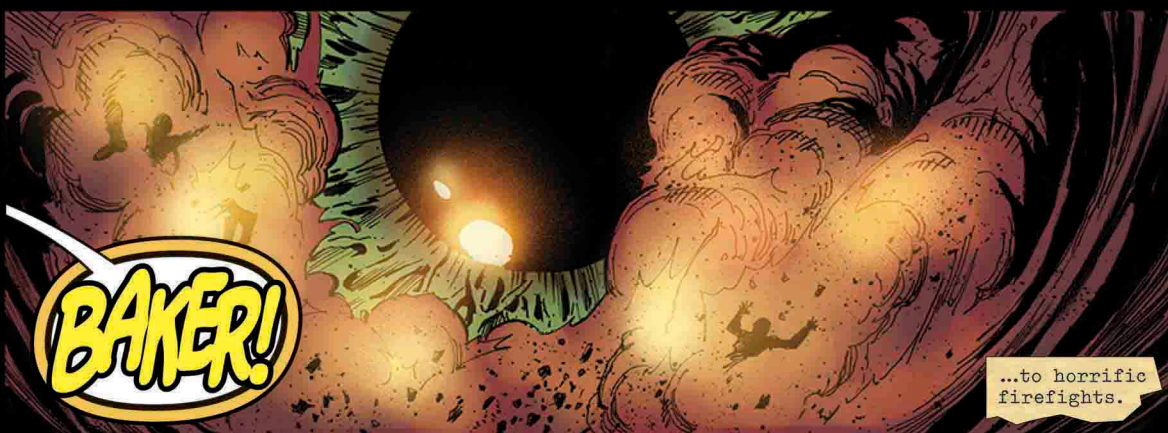

INCOMING MORTAR!

BAKER, GET DOWN!

...and
minds...

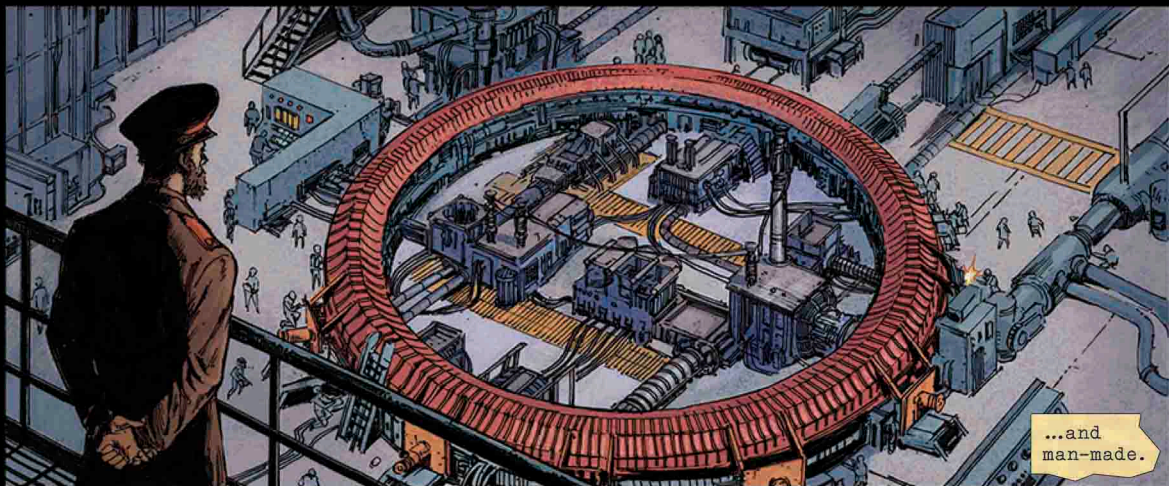

...to horrific
firefights.

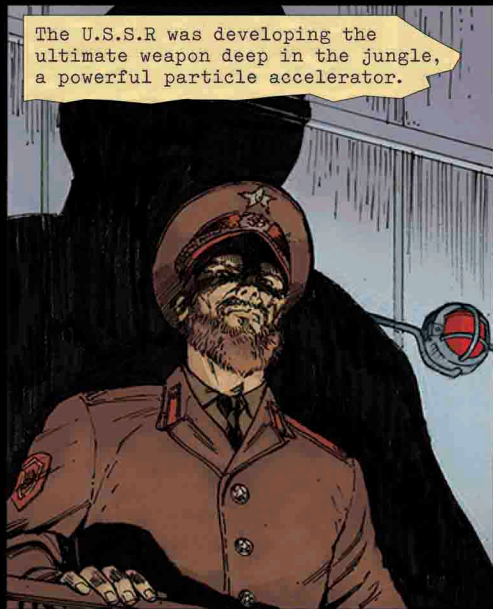

Of primeval horrors.

Both natural...

...and man-made.

The U.S.S.R was developing the ultimate weapon deep in the jungle, a powerful particle accelerator.

<СЫКА БЛҮЯТ!>

But their first experiment had ended in disaster.

A rift was created in space-time.

A misplaced step towards
the future of warfare...

GHRRRR

...had created a gateway to prehistory.

Vulture Squad went into this lost world blind.

IT'S COMING TOWARDS US!

JESUS CHRIST!

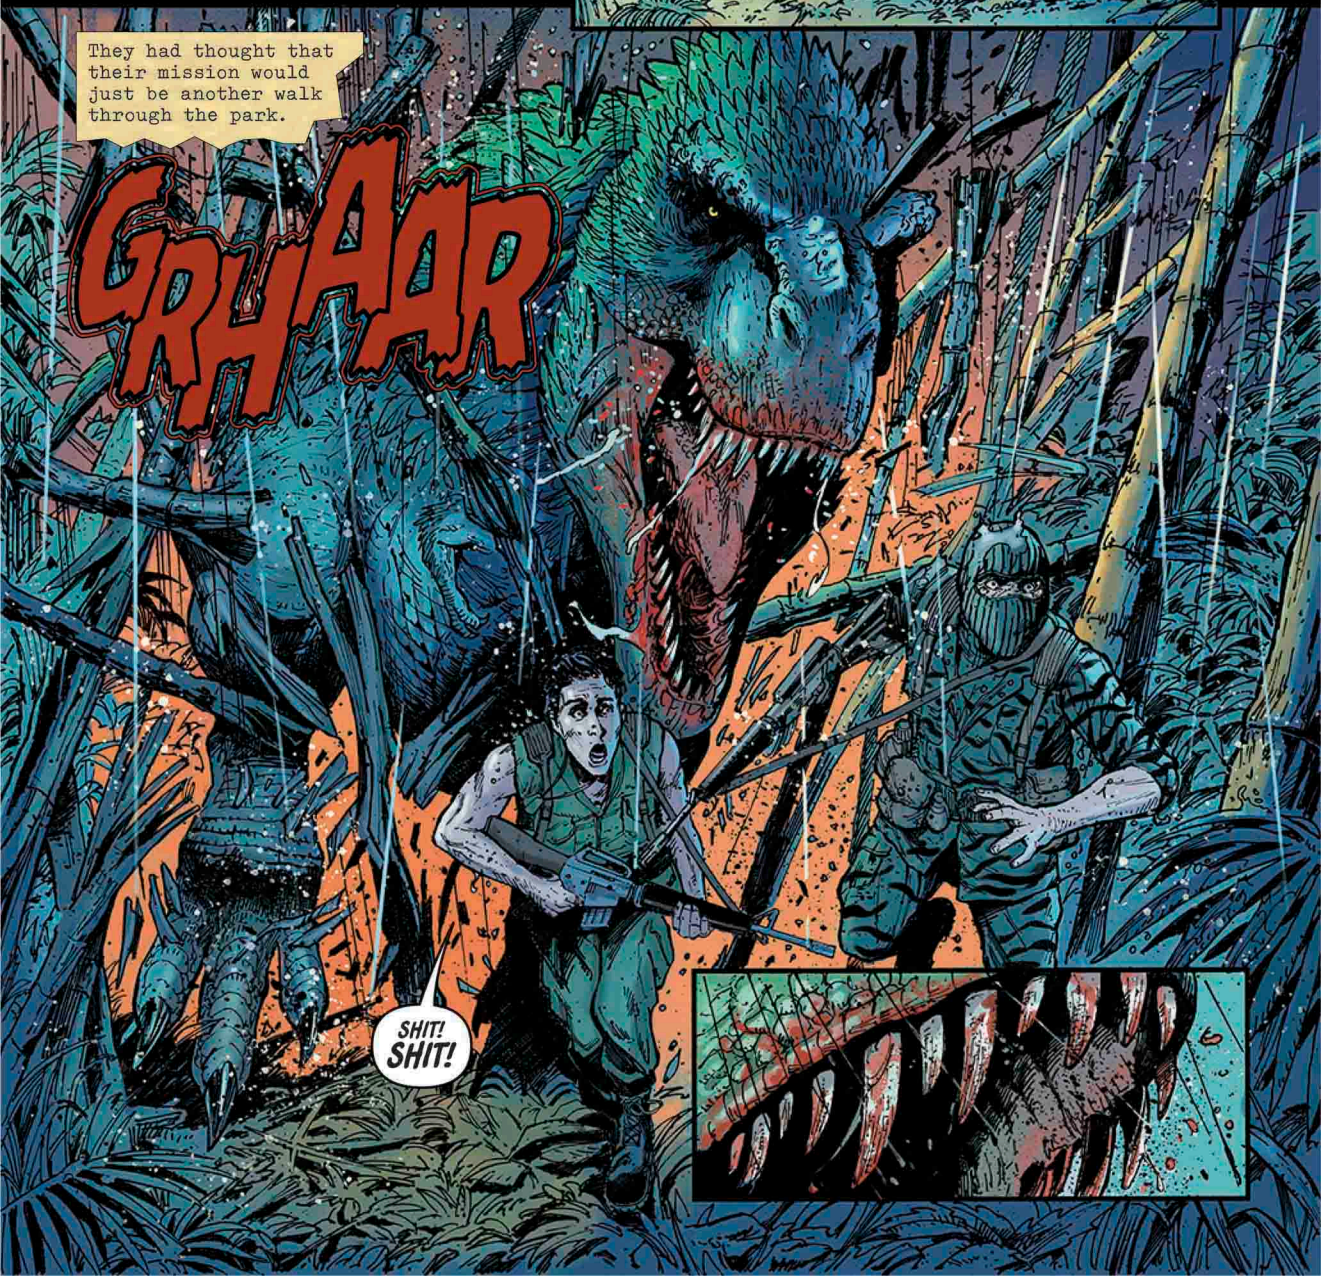

RUN LEON, RUN!

They had thought that their mission would just be another walk through the park.

GRH AAR

SHIT! SHIT!

Death lurked in every shifting shadow within the valley.

The broken were the first to die.

The war-torn jungles became soured with their blood.

Only the strongest survived their first encounters with the dinosaurs.

This was not the war they knew.

But the sacrifices
remained the same...

For god and country...

To fight
another day...

...for nothing.

Vietnam,
1970.

Two years after Vulture Squad discovered the dinosaurs, and the bloodbath continues.

A survivor of Vulture Squad's first forray into the valley now spearheads a team known as Stalker Force, tasked with quarantining and destroying the dinosaurs.

Xavier Wise, protégé of Ryan Baker, now the Captain of Stalker Force.

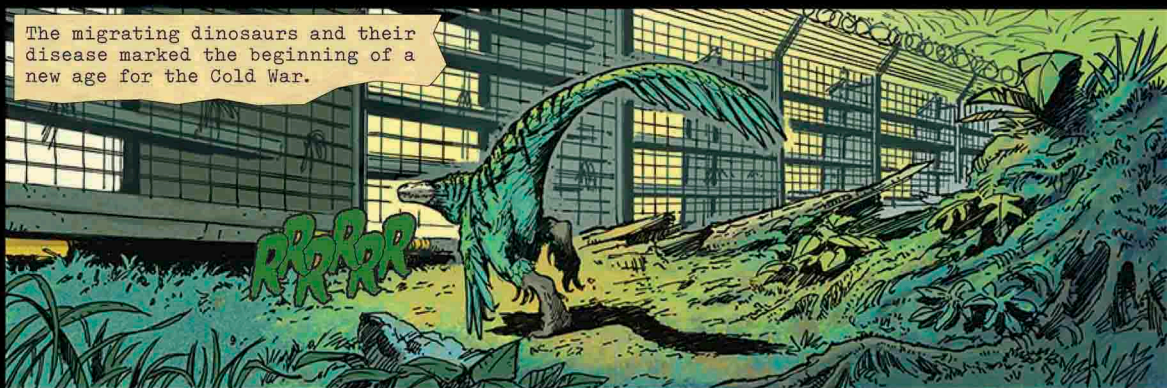

A born hunter, he always understood his place in the food chain...

And he wasn't afraid of the animals that had returned to the top of it...

Nor was he afraid of the apex predators escaping the valley, spreading ancient diseases across south east asia...

...the Utahraptors.

The migrating dinosaurs and their disease marked the beginning of a new age for the Cold War.

A world lost to escalating violence and primeval horrors...

An age...
